VOLUME CVI.---NO 95. ALEXANDRIA, VA., SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 22, 1905. PRICE 2 CENTS.

Who would exchange the merry noise of children at play, with the childless home where the clock tick can be heard hour after hour in the dull silence? But there are a great many who would like to people the silent house with the children that fate has refused them. Fate is often in this case only another word for ignorance. Many a glad mother dates her happiness from the day she first began the use of Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It often happens that with the cure of female weakness and the establishing of the delicate womanly organs in sound health, the way is opened for the joy of motherhood. "Favorite Prescription" is a specific for the chronic ailments peculiar to women. It cures them perfectly and permanently.

No other medicine can do for women so much as "Favorite Prescription." Do not therefore let any other medicine be palmed off on you as "just as good."

"Favorite Prescription" contains no alcohol, opium, cocaine or other narcotic. It is strictly a temperance medicine.

"I can truly say your medicine is a friend of mine," writes Mrs. Arthur Bratt, of Amherstburg, Ontario, Canada. "I am mother of four children and suffered greatly at times of birth of first three. When three months along with the last one I began to think of trying some medicine to ease those terrible pains, and asked our doctor whether there was anything he could give me to lessen labor pains. He said there was nothing that could help me. I then thought I would write to Dr. Pierce. He advised me to take his 'Favorite Prescription.' I started to take it at fourth month. I was very weak, had heart trouble and would faint away two or three times a day. Our doctor could not help me and life was a drag. I would often say, oh, if I could only die in one of these spells; but I took five bottles of 'Favorite Prescription' and felt better every way. Got along well at the time of delivery. I had heard of painless childbirth, and I thought it must be a good medicine that would help those pains, but I know now for myself, and can not tell it plain enough. Your 'Favorite Prescription' is the best medicine as we mothers know. I advise my friends to try it. Baby is now four months old and is a strong healthy boy."

THE REAL TEST

Of Herpicide Is In Giving It a Thorough Trial.

There is only one test by which to judge of the efficiency of any article and that is by its ability to do that which it is intended to do. Many hair vigors may look nice and smell nice, but the point is—do they eradicate Dandruff and stop falling hair?

No, they do not, but Herpicide does, because it goes to the root of the evil and kills the germ that attacks the papilla from whence the hair gets its life.

Letters from prominent people everywhere are daily proving that Newbro's Herpicide stands the "test of use."

It is a delightful dressing, clear, pure and free from oil or grease.

Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich.

STRONG Again

is what Mrs. Lucy Stovall, of Tilton, Ga., said after taking Kodol Dyspepsia Cure. Hundreds of other weak women are being restored to perfect health by this remedy. YOU may be well if you will take it.

Indigestion causes nearly all the sickness that women have. It deprives the system of nourishment and the delicate organs peculiar to women suffer—weaken, and become diseased.

Kodol Dyspepsia Cure

enables the stomach and digestive organs to digest and assimilate all of the wholesome food that may be eaten. It nourishes the body, and rebuilds the weak organs, restoring health and strength. Kodol cures indigestion, constipation, dyspepsia, sour risings, belching, heartburn and all stomach disorders.

Digests What You Eat

Dollar bottle holds 2½ times as much as the trial, or 50 cent size.

TERRIFIC STORMS.

Scores of persons were injured and property worth thousands of dollars was destroyed by a storm of cyclonic proportions, which swept over Philadelphia yesterday afternoon. The storm lasted less than half an hour, but in that time it wrought damage greater than that done by any storm that has visited Philadelphia in recent years. The storm struck the city at 3 o'clock; half an hour later it passed off, leaving in its wake a trail of ruin. The wind blew at the rate of 50 miles an hour, and rain fell in a deluge. Traffic was tied up completely, people on the street were blown from their feet, landing 20 or 30 feet away, against buildings.

From all sections of the city came reports of houses unroofed. More than 500 damaged buildings have already been reported.

Mrs. Charles Long, who was buried beneath the wreckage of a fence at Thirteenth and Mt. Vernon streets, was so badly injured that the physicians have abandoned hope of her recovery. Mrs. Long was walking along the street with her two-year-old baby in her arms. As she was caught beneath the falling fence she shoved the child from her arms. Several men extricated her from the wreckage. At the hospital it was found that her back had been broken and that she had sustained a fractured skull and several broken ribs.

The storm also affected the suburbs and nearby towns to the southward. Chester was visited by a terrific wind and rain storm which did damage to the extent of hundreds of dollars. Small boys and girls were blown off their feet, wagons were overturned and parts of tin roofs blown off. The main tent of the Hargreaves shows, in which a rehearsal was going on, was blown down, but no one was hurt. There was a stampede of horses, but they were later corralled. The wind blew 70 miles an hour and many telegraph poles fell.

At Felton two houses were blown down and two men injured.

Coney Island was badly damaged by a terrific wind and electric storm that swept over the resort yesterday afternoon. Frederick W. Thompson, one of the owners of Luna Park, and Percival Hyatt, the well-known booking agent, were shocked by a bolt of electricity that struck the great Luna Park tower.

Many buildings in course of constructing or undergoing repairs for the approaching season were blown down and several workmen hurt. The new scenic railway was demolished by the wind. There was a wild scramble for safety on the part of 500 workmen employed in Luna Park.

The storm which gathered power as it sped toward the ocean, after passing over Manhattan bore such an ugly look as it approached the island that all men at work on lofty heights skidded to the ground in a hurry, or many would have been blown out to sea.

The electrical display on the thousands of wires that are in the various amusement enterprises became heavily charged, and for a few moments the effect was terrific. The bolt which struck the 370-foot Luna Park tower created a flame that was visibly all over Gravesend and as far west as New Jersey.

Trouble with the Sultan.

Some of the difficulties encountered by the American minister at Constantinople in his efforts to gain an audience with the Sultan last year to obtain settlement of American claims are set forth in the following official pharaphase, made public at the State Department yesterday, of a cablegram received at the time from Minister Leishman:

"Mr. Leishman reports that in the absence of any further communication from the palace about the audience, he attended selamnik this morning, and that the grand master of ceremonies informed him that, on account of important visitors in the harem, His Majesty could not receive him today. In view of the fact that the audience was demanded in the name of the President and that he had twice been put off, it seems to Mr. Leishman to be beneath the dignity of the government of the United States to have him go again to the palace to seek an audience unless positive assurance be given in advance that he will be received by the Sultan. Requests further instructions."

Exasperated by the dilatoriness of the Porte, the Secretary informed Mr. Leishman that "the American fleet will arrive at Smyrna in a few days, and instructs him to use his best endeavors to obtain a satisfactory answer from the Turkish government before its arrival, and if that government should continue to refuse or to neglect to grant the moderate and reasonable requests of this government, to take an indefinite leave and to depart from Turkey in one of the United States vessels, leaving the legation in charge of the secretary of legation."

FOR OVER SIXTY YEARS

AN OLD AND WELL-TRIED REMEDY.—Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup has been used for over sixty years by millions of mothers for their children while teething with perfect success. It soothes the child, softens the gums, allays all pain, cures wind colic and is the best remedy for Diarrhœa. Is pleasant to the taste. Sold by druggists in every part of the world. Twenty-five cents a bottle. Its value is incalculable. Be sure and ask for Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup and take no other kind.

WOMEN NOT TRUTHFUL

This Statement Has Been Unjustly Made, Because Modest Women Evade Questions Asked By Male Physicians.

Mrs. J. H. Farmer Mrs. Ella Lee

An eminent physician says that "Women are not truthful; they will lie to their physician." This statement should be qualified; women do tell the truth, but not the whole truth, to a male physician, but this is only in regard to those painful and troublesome disorders peculiar to their sex.

There can be no more terrible ordeal to a delicate, sensitive, refined woman than to be obliged to answer certain questions when those questions are asked, even by her family physician. This is especially the case with unmarried women.

Is it any wonder, then, that women continue to suffer and that doctors fail to cure female diseases when they cannot get the proper information to work on?

This is the reason why thousands and thousands of women are now corresponding with Mrs. Pinkham. To her they can and do give every symptom, so that she really knows more about the true condition of her patients, through her correspondence with them than the physician who personally questions them.

If you suffer from any form of trouble peculiar to women, write at once to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will advise you free of charge.

The fact that this great boon, which is extended freely to women by Mrs. Pinkham, is appreciated, the thousands of letters received by her prove. Many such grateful letters as the following are constantly pouring in.

Mrs. Ella Lee, Frankford, Ind., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I want to thank you for what your medicine has done for me.

"Three years ago I had inflammation of the ovaries and ulcers on my womb. I was under the doctor's care for about three months, and the only time I was not in pain was when under the influence of morphine. The doctor finally said I never would be better, and would be an invalid the rest of my life. I had given up in despair, but one evening I came across one of your advertisements and decided to write you for advice. I did so and commenced to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I began to improve at once, and to-day I am a well woman, and I know it is all due to your advice and medicine.

Mrs. J. H. Farmer of 2809 Elliott Avenue, St. Louis, Mo., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I cannot thank you enough for what your advice and medicines have done for me. They have done me more good than all the doctors I ever had.

"For the last eight years I have suffered with female troubles; was very weak; had nervous prostration, and could not do my work; but I am happy to say Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has made a different woman of me. I am in perfect health and have gained in weight from 98 pounds to 122 pounds."

No other medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. No other medicine has such a record for actual cures of female ills as has Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Mrs. Pinkham invites all sick women to write her for advice. She has guided thousands to health. Address, Lynn, Mass.

Ask Mrs. Pinkham's Advice—A Woman Best Understands A Woman's Ills.

"The Little Brown Man."

The little "Brown Man" we call a "Jap,"
Though quite small, he is no "Brownie;"
He has given the Russians many a rap,
Which proves that he is no "fairy."
From Port Arthur's crumbling walls
To Mukden's gory field,
He has paved his way with cannon balls
And forced the Slav to yield.
His prowess upon the sea,
And victories upon the land
Shows right well a quality,
Which is no contraband.

Alexandria Gazette
SIC SEMPER TYRANNIS
AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

SATURDAY EVENING, APRIL 22, 1905.

GOVERNOR MONTAGUE appeared on the hustings at Danville yesterday as a candidate for United States Senator in place of Senator Martin whom he is endeavoring to unhorse. As has been the case on previous occasions, his speech was little else than an attack upon the junior Senator. It is hard to see how the Governor's assaults can appeal to unbiased voters. For instance the, Governor said Senator Martin was inexperienced in public life prior to his election to the Senate, and had never held a public office, delivered an address or written a public article when he defeated General Eppa Hunton, a great statesman and a great soldier. The Governor subsequently lauded General Fitzhugh Lee, whom Senator Martin defeated, and alleged that the people were disappointed at the result. The fact that Mr. Martin was selected when such senatorial timber was in the market rather redounds to his credit, and is the best credential that could be given him, and now, having a record as a public man, he will, in all probability, add another scalp to his belt. When Governor Montague first started on his crusade many people, including some of his friends, realized that he was making a serious mistake in attacking Senator Martin's public course, and as the canvass proceeds this becomes more and more apparent, as there is reason to believe the Governor is augmenting the Senator's followers.

ACCORDING to the prognostications of Senator Dick, the Ohio republican convention, which will meet in May, will adopt a platform distinctly hostile to the announced policy of President Roosevelt. In an interview in Washington yesterday Senator Dick gave it as his opinion that the Ohio convention would declare vigorously for a stand-pat policy on the tariff in the coming Congress, and that it would deprecate any railroad legislation which might adversely affect the interests of the 1,300,000 railroad employes and investors in railroad securities of the United States. There would be a declaration for railroad legislation, the Senator thought, but of a moderate character. In other words, the convention would call for legislation such as the railroad men of the country are saying would be acceptable to them. This means that the convention will take an attitude hostile to the extension of the powers of the Interstate Commerce Commission to the point of permitting it to fix railroad rates in the manner recommended by the President and embodied in the Esch-Townsend bill, which passed the House at the last session.

THE ANNOUNCEMENT in yesterday's Gazette to the effect that two policemen are contemplating contesting the validity of the action of the Police Board in deposing them from the force has caused some apprehension. As was stated, exception is taken on the ground that two commissioners, who voted for the deposition, are not residents of the wards they represent, and that the action of the board is subsequently null and void. Should the Corporation Court sustain the plaintiffs the election of an officer last Wednesday night would be called in question, and a counter suits follow. Many people have become convinced during the past seven or eight years, by reason of the many embroglios, law suits, &c., that a police board has been an expensive and a needless luxury for Alexandria, and that one of two things should be done as soon as possible—either amend the charter creating the board and provide that policemen be elected every two years instead of virtually for life, or abolish the board altogether and empower the City Council to elect, as was the case previous to 1895.

WITH the departure for China of Otto Malkow, one of the general superintendents of Swift & Co., in Chicago, the loss of another important packing official, whose testimony was wanted by the federal grand jury ofthat city has become known. Malkow is expected to be gone two years. Since the beef trust investigations were started, Chicago packing firms have turned their attention to China and other countries of Asia. This fact has been announced by an official of Swift & Co. Trusted employes have been selected to visit those countries and make an opening for business? Federal officials are said to be watching several leading employees whose approaching departure has been reported to them, but no steps have been taken to hold them as witnesses. Indeed representatives of the packers are indignant at this system of espionage, and declare it is unnecessary!

The President.

Camp Roosevelt, Col., April 22.—During the course of a 25 mile ride, President Roosevelt, Dr. Lambert and Guards Goff and Wells found no game, but the President located a beautiful little park on Ban Ranche, where the next camp will be pitched. The President fell in love with the spot. The next site is 26 miles from Newcastle, and in the heart of the huntsman's hills.

From Washington.

Washington, D. C., April 22.

A small army of gardeners is at work about the White House grounds putting them in shape for the annual "Easter Monday" egg-rolling. The absence of the President will not interfere with the festival, which has become such a joy in the minds of the children of the capital, and much the same programme will be carried out that he usually takes so much pleasure in superintending. Assistant Secretary B. F. Barnes will have general charge of the ceremonies. No "grown-ups" will be permitted unless they are accompanied by children. The White House grounds will be open from nine in the morning until one in the afternoon. The Marine Band will not give a concert in the White House grounds, but will play on the "White Lot," south of the White House, during the afternoon. This change has been made in order to give every one an opportunity to enjoy the music. Mrs. Roosevelt, Miss Alice, Ethel, Archie and Quentin will probably spend a good deal of time on the south veranda while the egg-rolling is in progress. The usual force of policemen about the White House will be considerably enlarged for the proper care of the little ones on Monday and Secretary Barnes announces that every effort will be made to prevent the admission of rough or objectionable persons.

A mandate was issued today from the United States Supreme Court to the U. S. The concluding session of the 14th congress of the D. A. R. opened this morning with Mrs. Fairbanks in the chair for the last time. She invited Mrs. Donald McLean, president-general-elect, to a seat upon the platform. Mrs. McLean was elected chairman of the Continental Hall committee. This action led to a sort of love feast, during which Mrs. Fairbanks abandoned the chair and heaped praises on all the women who assisted her during the past three years in purchasing the site and laying the foundation for the Society's building.

Mrs. McLean arrived at the platform in responce to Mrs. Fairbanks invitation during the announcement of State elections. She presented Mrs. Fairbanks with a beautiful floral star, the insignia of the New York City Chapter. Mrs. McLean then said as a practical expression of the same sentiment she wished to present to the Continental Hall fund checks for $1000 from Mrs. James A. Aldrich, $100 from James W. Randall and $100 from Mrs. A. J. Robinson, all of New York City

It is learned today for the first time that Japan has asked the United States government to make representations to France regarding the alleged infraction of French neutrality through the use of her ports in Indo-China by the Russian fleet under Admiral Rojestvensky. It is the decided opinion of the officials here that the Japanese invitation will be politely declined.

Apolonia Catra, the notorious female bandit of Batangas province in the Philipines, has been killed by the constabulary, according to information received here. Apolonia was for many years distinguished because of her cruelty and ferocity. She held the rank of lieutenant under Lucio Vega, outlaw chief, and led companies with the skill of a veteran. When a detachment of constabulary scouts under lieutenants Velasquz and Estrella surprised her in the mountains, she refused to surrender and by the example of her reckless courage caused her men to stand by her in a fight to the death. She was dressed as a man and had disdained woman's attire ever since she embarked on her career of crime.

DEATH OF SENATOR PLATT.

United States Senator O. H. Platt died at 8:58 last night at Washington, Conn. The immediate cause of death was the breaking of the abscess which had formed in the right lung. Strangulation ensued. The Senator was conscious and apparently without pain until the last moment. He had been recovering from pneumonia, but was getting better when the abscess formed. Senator Platt contracted a severe cold while the Swayne impeachment trial at the national capital was in progress before the Senate. He had not fully recovered from it at the the time of Senator Hawley's funeral and suffered a chill. On Friday, March 31, he was taken with illness that proved fatal. The funeral will probably be held next Tuesday.

Senator Orville H. Platt, of Connecticut, was born in Washington, Litchfield county, July 19, 1827, the son of a farmer. He remained on the farm studying at a local academy till he was 21, and soon took an active part in politics, holding different positions under the State.

Mr. Platt took his seat in the U. S. Senate on March 18 of that year. He had served continuously in the upper House of Congress since then, and his term would not have expired until March 3, 1909. During his year in the Senate he made a close study of the American merchant marine and was one of the best-posted men in the country on this subject. Not given to oratorical flourishes, his remarks were always delivered with great directness, and the array of fact he was able to marshal in support of his arguments made him a forceful, if not spectacular, debater.

Senator Platt's last public utterance was at the State Capital on March 21, when, before the General Assembly, he delivered the eulogy over General Hawley, whose body lay in state in the corridor below.

Senator Platt succeeded Senator Hoar after the latter's death as chairman of the judiciary committee of the United States Senate. Later he was made chairman of the special committee of the Senate appointed to conduct the Swayne impeachment trial. That was his last high public duty before returning to his native State to assist in paying honor to the memory of General Hawley.

D. A. R.

Mrs. Donald McLean, the newly elected president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution, is the central social figure in Washington. Her apartments in the Arlington Hotel are filled with flowers and the tables with telegrams of congratulation over her sweeping victory As long as she is in her rooms she is receiving a stream of visitors, both "Daughters" and other friends, for she has hosts of them in Washington. She said yesterday she would remain in Washington until late next week, at least, getting in touch with the business affairs of her new office and becoming acquainted with her new duties.

Yesterday she met her former opponents in the board of managers and they agreed on a programme of complete harmony.

"My first efforts," said Mrs. McLean, "will be directed toward the finishing of Continental Memorial Hall. There is a depleted fund for this, to be sure, but I will get right at it and see what can be done to permit us to go right ahead with the splendid work."

Mrs. McLean declared her intention of conducting the society on the same lines as her predecessors and expressed her delight at the cordial way in which her election has been received generally.

Harmony will be the watchword of the Daughters of the American Revolution from this time on. Since Mrs. McLean has won the national board of managers is now ready to give her its cordial support The board held a prolonged meeting yesterday at national headquarters and the plan of campaign for the next two years was outlined, Mrs. McLean was present. It was the assemble of the old-time foes, and it was practically the buying of the hatchet.

At the conclusion of the meeting it was agreed that the national board of officers would give Mrs. McLean their hearty and loyal support. The outcome was a complete victory for Mrs. McLean.

Mr. Bryan.

Cleveland, O., April 4.—William Jennings Bryan spent a short time here this morning in conference with Mayor Tom L. Johnson. "Discussions now going on along the line of education," said Mr. Bryan, "and interesting investigations are in progress, all of which are vindications of democratic contentions. One of the most helpful and hopeful signs is the discussion now being carried on on the ethics of donations. In the Rockefeller donation case the result shows that the conscience of the people is working. The greatest of all influences is conscience. We complained in 1896 and 1900 that the aggregation of wealth is not dealing fairly with the people of the nation. The courts, magazines and other educational influences are attracting the eyes of the people. Trusts are being proceeded against and their manipulations laid bare. The controversy among the heads of the Equitable is a case in point. It shows that the trust funds are being manipulated and handled for the benefit of the capitalists who control it and are in charge instead of the policy holders."

Activity on British Warships.

London, April 22.—The correspondent of the Star, at Hong Kong, says the preparations being made by the British warships there and the activity that has prevailed on board have aroused the greatest interest. Some of preparations are of the most sinister nature. All the older guns on the ships are being replaced by guns of the latest pattern, and Admiral Noel himself is directing the operations. The crew are working night and day to get all the ships ready for immediate departure from the port, and the work is being pushed with such expedition that no shore leave has been granted for Easter.

GOV. MONTAGUE'S SPEECH.

Gov. Montague made a speech at Danville last night. This being the governor's home city, a large number of the citizens, regardless of their personal choice for United States Senator, availed themselves of the opportunity to hear his first address during the campaign in Danville. The keynote of the address of the governor was his criticisms and comments upon the record of Senator Martin.

Gov. Montague opened his speech by saying that this was the first time the people of Danville ever had a man to appeal to them for their votes for the United States Senate. He strongly urged the necessity of electing Senators by the people, and dwelt at some length on the commercial sentiment and the grafting process in that body of legislators. Producing a copy of a Richmond newspaper of 1899, he quoted Senator Martin as being opposed to the election of Senators by the people, and further stated that the junior Senator's motion for a primiary election in the Richmond convention had been carried before it was ever presented.

The governor urged the regulation of railroads by the government, and charged that when a motion was made in the United States Senate to investigate the alleged efforts of corporations to influence legislation, Mr. Martin was one of those voting against it. "The railroads," said the governor, "are public servants, and should obey the wishes of the people, and we want them to keep their hands out of politics. The records of the Senate do not show that he has ever been in favor of the regulation of the railroads by the government."

Gov. Montague spoke at length of Mr. Martin's inexperience in public life prior to his election to the United States Senate, and said he had never held an office, never made a public address, or written a public article when he defeated a man who was great and had wide experience as a statesman and a soldier, referring to Gen. Eppa Hunton. The governor spoke in the highest terms of Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, and to the disappointment of the people when he was defeated by Mr. Martin.

In his address Gov. Montague stated that if Mr. Martin had got every appropriation he said he had, there was no use for any more Senators and Congressmen. He said that out of $1,700,000 that he claimed to have secured for Virginia the State was in fact paid only the sum of $5.50, while Senator Tillman, of South Carolina, secured for his State about $80,000. Senator Tillman, he added, was not regarded as a business Senator, either.

Mr. Montague replied to the attack of Congressman Flood as to being absent from the capitol so many days out of the year, and intimated that Mr. Flood had better clear his own skirts before making any criticism of his neglect.

He charged Mr. Flood with being a member of Congress and the constitutional convention at the same time, and with leaving his congressional duties in Washington to attend to some private law business. The Governor was very severe in his criticism of Col. Joseph Button, and objected, he said, to Mr. Button being the secretary of the State democratic committee and a clerk in the employ of a candidate before the democratic primary. The governor was frequently interrupted during his address by applause from the audience.

Will Soon Pay Pensions.

The office of the State auditor of public accounts in Richmond will commence the payment of pensions under the act of 1888 to about 2,800 pensioners about May 1st. Certificates under this act are being filed in the auditor's office now. Checks will be sent out May 1st to all then on the roll. It would be well for persons entitled to pensions under this act (1888) to file their certificates at once and thus greatly facilitate the issue of checks.

Today's Telegraphic News

Ordered to Leave Kamranh Bay.

Paris, Abril 22.—It is stated in parliamentary circles that Russia has informed France that she has sent Admiral Rojestvensky minute instructions to respect the rules of neutrality, and to carefully avoid doing anything that would give Japan the slightest pretext for picking a quarrel with Russia's ally.

The government has not yet received a reply from M. Beau, the governor of Indo-China, in reply to the instructions sent to him, to send information as to the exact location of the Russian fleet.

London, April 22.—A dispatch to the Central News from Paris says that it is announced there that Admiral Rojestvensky left Kamanh bay today, for the Island of Hainan, where the vessels will go to coal. Hainan is a large island almost directly north from Kamranh bay and located in the Gulf of Tonquin. It belongs to China, and is close to the Chinese coast on the Gulf of Tonquin.

Reports from Saigon say that Admiral De Jonqueres, of the French fleet in Indo-China waters, visited the Russians while the fleet was lying in Kamranh bay. There were about fifty vessels in the fleet.

The Russians were short of provisions and French and German steamers were engaged in carrying supplies to them from Saigon. The steamer Gridan was purchased for $60,000, to be used in carrying supplies.

The British steamer Hindu arrived in Saigon and began unloading coal which is supposed to be for the Russian fleet. Five colliers appeared shortly after the Hindu arrived to convey coal to the war vessels.

Another report says that Admiral Nebugatoff's fleet of seven battle ships and cruisers is expected at Saigon daily.

Tokio, April 22.—The Ministry of Marine announces that trustworthy eye witnesses report seeing four Russian cruisers outside Kamranh harbor and seven battleships inside the harbor. Six other warships were noticed in single formation outside the southern entrance to the bay.

London, April 22.—A telegram to the Reuter Telegram Company from St. Petersburg, says it is announced from semi-official sources that the Czar has ordered Admiral Rojestvensky to leave Kamranh bay.

London, April 22.—The Paris correspondent of the Pall Mall Gazette says he understands the British Ambassador to Paris has been interrupted in his Easter holiday and has returned to Paris to present a note from his government supporting the protest made by Japan, against the stay of the Baltic fleet in Kamranh Bay.

Resignation Withdrawn.

Paris, April 22.—M. Etienne, Minister of the Interior, stated in the lobbies of the Chamber, today, that M. Delcasse, the Foreign Minister, has withdrawn his resignation.

The greatest efforts have been made to induce M. Delcasse to change his decision to leave the cabinet. Premier Rouvier, Minister Etienne, and MM. Fallcres and Clementel waited upon M. Delcasse, this morning, to urge further reasons upon him for his remaining in the ministry. The conference lasted a long time. The results have not been made public, but the statement made by M. Etienne in the lobbies is regarded as significant, in view of the fact that he was one of those who conferred with the foreign minister.

President Loubet sent for M. Delcasse who, visited the Elysee, and had a long interview with the chief executive, today.

It has been officially announced that M. Delcasse will remain in the cabinet, as Minister of Foreign Affairs.

Paris, April 22.—All the members of the ministry met at the Elysee this afternoon, for a council. M. Delcasse, who has reconsidered his decision to retire from the cabinet, was one of the council. It is believed that the matter under discussion was the Kamranh bay incident, and the Japanese note on the subject.

Situation in Siberia.

St. Petersburg, April 22.—Your correspondent today interviewed one of the Czar's Siberian secret police who has arrived here to present his resignation as a protest against the unjust measures adopted by the government toward the people in Siberia. He said in regard to conditions there: "All Siberia is in a turmoil. The people there believe it is too late now to save the autocracy by means of a popular parliament. Those who are familiar with what is going on behind the scenes have lost all confidence in the government. Apparently there is nobody holding high office under the government whom the people can trust. Even Prince Mirsky, when he was Minister of the Interior, while outwardly exhibiting liberal tendencies, secretly ordered the Siberian police to closely watch all the educated classes, and to arrest any one heard speaking against the autocracy. During the administration of von Plehve, a body of twenty Siberian officials was appointed who served as government witnesses in all political trials, testifying to whatever they were told. This atrocious system still continues. I am tired of the continuous struggle against such measures, and intend to retire."

Break in May Wheat.

Chicago, April 22.—The wheat market went to smash this morning amid a panic on the Board of Trade. The May option took another headlong flight, scoring a loss of six cents within a few minutes, and creating a veritable riot among the traders who have been relying upon Armour to hold up the market. The slump this morning followed the announcement that Gates, Armour and the Northwestern people associated with Armour, as being holders of cash wheat had finally agreed upon a settlement and the closing out of the May deal. May closed Thursdayat 110, opened this morning at 1098, and with the announcement of the plan of the leaders to close out the option dropped to 105, and then down to 103. Wild scenes were witnessed on the room following the scramble of the longs to unload. The panic communicated itself to the other grain centers, Minneapolis reporting a drop o f4¼ cents, Duluth, 3 cents and St. Louis 2 cents. It is said that Gates finally came to the conclusion that he could not carry his sensational corner in May wheat to a successful finality and that he must settle with Armour and his associates who are heavy holders of cash wheat. The terms of the settlement have not reached the public, but it is believed that Gates is a heavy loser. May further broke to a dollar even, making a total loss of ten cents. Millions of bushels of the cereal bought for May delivery were thrown wildly on the market. Frantic brokers representing the houses carrying the immense "short" lines, fought madly to reach the sellers and cover their lines at a profit.

Men who sold wheat 115, 117 and 120 a bushel, bought it in today when the Gates brokers sold at a profit ranging from 5, 10, 15 cents a bushel. Never in the history of the grain trade was there a deal so long drawn out or of such magnitude as the May wheat deal. The lowest price for May wheat on the deal was $1.02 the largest holdings of the Gates party in the deal was estimated at 25,000,000 bushels.

Ends Life in Cathedral.

Milan, April 22.—Marchioness Pallavicini, an Austrian viscountess, 27 years old, shot herself with a revolver in the Cathedral here yesterday afternoon while the place was crowded with worshipers attending the Good Friday services. Everybody present was horrified by the act. A priest hastened to the marchioness and found her speechless. He administered the last rites of the Church. She died on the way to the hospital. The Cathedral, being thus desecrated, was immediately closed. It must be solemnly reconsecrated before services in it can be renewed. The suicide is ascribed to domestic unhappiness, as the marchioness was living apart from her husband.

Will of Cardinal Quashed.

Madrid, April 22.—The Supreme Court has quashed the will of the late Cardinal Herrero, who died in 1903, bequeathing 50,000 pesetas to the first Spanish general who should land at the head of an invading army in America to avenge Spain's loss of Cuba and the Philippines in the Spanish-American war. The Cardinal's relatives petitioned the court to have the will set aside. The court in granting the request says: "Though the will shows patriotic and laudable feelings, its provisions are politically and strategically unrealizable."

Accident on Brooklyn Bridge.

New York, April 22.—The axle of a New York bound train from Brooklyn broke while the train was in the middle of the Brooklyn bridge at 7 o'clock this morning, and let the car down upon the rails. A two hours blockade followed and hundreds upon hundreds were forced to walk the Brooklyn bridge to their places of business in Manhattan. The train was brought to a quick standstill, but, in the bump and jar, the passgers became frightened and there was a mad rush to escape from the disabled car. Fortunately no one was hurt.

Va., April 22.—As a result of an old feud between the Owens and Reft families, a general fight occurred near here early this morning, in which twenty or more shots were fired Howard Owens was shot and probably mortally wounded. Fremont Owens was also shot, but not seriously. Walter Reft was shot in the shoulder and Frank Cooper, a cousin of the Refts, who participated, had a horse shot dead which he was riding at the time of the fight. Cooper, himself, was uninjured.

Fight with a Chicken Hawk.

Cumberland, Md., April 22.—George Springstead had an experience with a chicken hawk today which he will not soon forget. After crippling the hawk, it attacked Springstead, lacerating his face terribly with its talons, and then seized him with its bill, and yanked out pieces of flesh. WANT SEPARATE TRIAL.

Andrew A. Lipscomb, who is jointly under indictment with Thomas M. Fields, for the alleged embezzlement of nearly $16,000 of the funds of the defunct Washington Beneficial Endowment Association, filed a motion in the District of Columbia Supreme Court yesterday for a separate trial. The motion was presented by former Senator John M. Thurston, R. Walton Moore, and F. Edward Mitchell, Mr. Lipscomb's attorneys.

An affidavit of Mr. Lipscomb accompanied the motion, and in it the reasons for the separate trial are assigned. The affidavit recites that Messrs. Lipscomb and Fields were appointed receivers of the association, both giving bond in the sum of $20,000. Frank Hume and James W. Ratcliffe, both of whom are claimed in the affidavit to be solvent, executed Mr. Lipscomb's bond, while Mr. Fields' bond was given by Raphael C. Gwynn and one Stienhie both of whom are alleged to be insolvent.

After setting out the history of the Endowment Association litigation up to the final decree of May 24, 1904, ordering distribution by the receivers of the funds in their hands, the affidavit sets forth a letter received by Mr. Lipscomb, May 22, 1904, in which Mr. Fields is said to have confessed to the embezzlement, saying that he had forged the name of Mr. Lipscomb, and that the latter was in no way to blame, legally or morally, for what had been done.

It is stated that a number of checks were inclosed in the letter, which had been drawn by Mrs. Fields against the fund, and which were turned over by Mr. Lipscomb to the United States district attorney. At the instance of the district attorney, Mr. Lipscomb states, he swore out a warrant against Mr. Fields charging him with embezzlement of a portion of the fund, and Fields was afterward apprehended on that warrant.

According to the affidavit, twenty-three checks found at the bank, upon which the indictment of Mr. Fields was based, were all signed "Thomas M. Fields, for Fields & Lipscomb," and were indorsed by Fields and deposited to his private account in the Second National Bank of Washington.

Mr. Lipscomb sets up that two letters were received by an attorney interested in the case a short time after the flight of Fields, in which the latter again confessed his guilt and sought to implicate Mr. Lipscomb, suggesting that Fields' bond was worthless and that Lipscomb's sureties would make good the deficit unless they believed that the latter was innocent, in which case Fields would be needed as a witness.

In order to further carry out his plan, Fields, it is charged, purchased the claim of the Commercial Alliance that he might postpone the final accounting. The history of the flight and capture of Fields in Rayville, N. Y., March 10 last, where he was known as "Dr. Brown," and was pretending to practice medicine, and his alleged attempt to kill the constable who assisted in his arrest, is set out.

Mr. Lipscomb asserts that after he had testified before the grand jury and an indictment had been returned against Fields, based on his testimony, the grand jury was called on to find an indictment against the two receivers jointly. This indictment, he charges, was returned against him solely upon the letters of Fields charging him with complicity in the embezzlement. It is suggested that the defenses of the two men are so conflicting and antagonistic that it would be prejudicial if they were tried together. A notice accompanied the motion setting it for argument before Justice Wright, in the Criminal Court, at 10 o'clock next Tuesday morning.

Why We Recommend Orrine To Cure Drunkenness.

In taking the agency for Orrine, the liquor habit cure, we thoroughly satisfied ourselves that it was an article of genuine merit, and that the company, which is located in Washington, D. C., deals squarely and lives up strictly to the guarantee, "If the cure is not made the money will be refunded."

Since selling Orrine numerous cases have come to our knowledge that have been cured of the horrible liquor habit by this meritorious article, which strengthens the nervous system and destroys the craving for whiskey, beer or other alcoholic stimulants. Orrine is prepared in two forms. No. 1 should be given to cure the patient without his knowledge. It can be put into coffee or food, as it is tasteless, colorless and odorless.

We think that when the excessive drinker is approached properly he will be willing to be cured. If he consents, purchase Orrine No. 2, which is put up in pill form. Step into our store and receive full information regarding Orrine, the remedy that really cures the liquor habit. If you will write to the Orrine Company, Inc., Washington, D. C., they will send you free a book on "Drunkenness," in a plain paper wrapper.

We have great confidence that Orrine cures the drink habit. Sold by E. S. Leadbeater & Sons, Druggists, Alexandria, Va.

Easter.

Eastertide, the most joyous festival of the Christian Church, will begin tomorrow, and the penitential gloom of Holy Week will give way to joy. Alleluias and hymns of praise will tell the story of the Resurrection and Christ's triumph over death, reinforcing the teachings of service and of sermon. Glowing lights and beautiful flowers—lilies in their purity, roses with their fragrance and loveliness, hyacinths, azaleas, the floral wealth of the springtime, symbols of the great mystery of life out of death—will aid in the telling of the great message of the day. In the churches the elaborate musical programme heretofore published in the Gazette will be rendered and the Sunday schools of several of the churches will hold interesting Easter celebrations.

Confession of Yeggman.

"Johnny" McCarthy, alias Dandrell, alias "Johnny" Wilson, a notorious yeggman and bank burglar, is now in Baltimore on his way back to the Vermont penitentiary, where he is serving a seven-year term for burglary. He has just been brought back from Charleston, S. C., where he was taken to testify against yeggmen arrested in Baltimore and convicted of postoffice robberies in South Carolina. McCarthy no longer attempts to conceal the details of his criminal career. "I was one of the gang of yeggmen, who last year robbed country stores and small banks throughout Maryland, Virginia, and Delaware," he said.

McCarty is only twenty-five years old, and is possessed of considerable intelligence. He says he has made up his mind to sever all connection with "crookdom," and after he is released from prison will endeavor to lead an honest life.

"I was a clerk in a Philadelphia manufacturing concern," said McCarthy, "and occasionally I used to take a run down to Wilmington. There I met 'Ned' Morgan, who was the leader of a band of yeggs operating in the east and south.

"In the winter of 1903 Morgan, Maude Morgan and I had a house in Alexandria, Va. Morgan got into trouble there by shooting a man who insulted Maude. The man didn't die, but 'Ned' skipped town. Last March a year ago we all came to Baltimore, and worked off the jobs at Illchester and Church Hill."

The shooting of John Ryan in the fall of 1903 by an unknown man has long incited the interest of the curious. The shooting, it will be remembered, occurred in a saloon at the northeast corner of Duke and Henry streets, and the authorities were unable to identify the assailant. It was known that the woman and several men had lodging in the upper story of a house on the north side of Prince street, near Fairfax, and she and the men were arrested. Nothing could be proven on the latter and the woman refused to testify in court when asked who was her companion on the night of the shooting. She was fined $100 for contumaciousness, after which she left the city.

McCarthy was known as John Hennessy, of Boston, and John McAvoy, who was arrested in this city by Officers Knight and Henderson, and who was at one time in the Alexandria Hospital. Morgan was known here as Ed. Reynolds, and was a companion of McAvoy. Maud Morgan, alias Reynolds, is Maud Dugan, of Cumberland, Md., and was arrested in Washington and turned over to Officer Knight after the shooting of Ryan. The gang was under surveillance while in Alexandria, but committed no act previous to the shooting of Ryan to cause their arrest.

Four of the yeggman gang are to be tried at Norfolk next week for robbing the bank at Manassas.

Your attention is called to the fact that unless your capitation tax is paid by the 6th day of May, but two weeks off, you will not be qualified to participate in the primary election for the nomination of United States Senator, Governor and other officers; nor can you vote at the November election.

Change in the Weather.

The warm weather of yesterday was followed near the close of the day by showers, accompanied by some thunder and lighting. The wind changed to the northwest during the night, and this morning the weather was fair and cooler. The indications point to fair weather tomorrow.

The Market.

There was an increased number of buyers and sellers in market this morning. The display of country produce was better than usual, and flowers were in abundance. A large quantity of green stuff was on the benches, as well as most of the seasonable vegetables. Prices were about the same as last week. The butchers had fine displays of meats, while the hucksters had every other adjunct to an Easter dinner. The fish benches had meagre supplies, and were disposing of the few varieties (except herring) at fancy prices.

The residents of Tunneltown were made very indignant about 2:30 o'clock this evening by the sudden appearance of the entire fire department in their midst. The firemen were promtly ordered back, back, back to whence they came and were warned against again disturbing the quiet and serenity of that neighborhood. There was no fire there and seldom is and the cause of the alarm could not be ascertained.

The Fish Market.

There was an increase in the receipts of herring at Fishtown yesterday, and prices fell in consequence. Shad, however, are still scarce and becoming higher every day. There was but one in market at 9 o'clock this morning and it was being held at 75 cents. A few white perch and rock were on the benches but they were bringing fancy prices.

Mr. Joseph F. Rodgers has been awarded the contract for building a chapel on the corner of Fairfax and Franklin streets. It is to be known as the Church of the Good Shepherd.

The Nan Patterson Witness.

Lawyer Abraham Levy, counsel for "Nan" Patterson, telegraphed from New York yesterday to a Chicago lawyer to secure in detail the story of Samuel Eisenberg, who said he saw "Caesar" Young kill himself. Mr. Levy was informed in reply that Eisenberg told a convincing story and was willing to come to New York to repeat it.

Mr. Levy said it tallied with that told by the witness Hazelton, of Oneonta, N. Y., who testified for the defense in "Nan" Patterson's last trial.

"The man does not speak English," said Mr. Levy, "and I do not know how he would stand under the fire of cross-examination, but his story impresses me."

"Nan" Patterson will hereafter occupy a cell with her sister, Mrs. J. Morgan Smith. This arrangement was made yesterday by Warden Flynn, of the Tombs. The cell is in the new hospital ward in the women's section.

A dispatch from Chicago says that Eissenberg has expressed a willingness to go to New York and testify on the witness stand in the case of "Nan" Patterson. "The cab in which Young and 'Nan' Patterson sat passed within five feet of me," said Eissenberg. "The man appeared drunk, and he appeared to be fighting with the woman. She was clinging tightly to his hands. The cab was moving very slowly and the woman said something to the driver, as if to tell him to go faster. He cracked his whip and the horse went faster. Suddenly the man got his hands free and pulled a revolver from his pocket. His hand went up and down and then the shot rang out. The man fell forward, the revolver fell from his hand and he fell over on the woman's lap. The woman seemed to faint, because her head fell on his shoulder."

New Cure For Cancer.

All surface cancers are now known to be curable by Bucklen's Arnica Salve. Jas. Walters, of Duffield, Va., writes: "I had a cancer on my lip for years, that seemed incurable, till Bucklen's Arnica Salve healed it and now it is perfectly well." Guaranteed cure for cuts and burns. 25c at E. S. Leadbeater & Sons' drug store.

Won a Name of Fame.

DeWitt's Little Early Risers, the famous little pills, have been made famous by their certain yet harmless and gentle action upon the bowels and liver. They have no equal for biliousness, constipation, etc. They do not weaken the stomach, grip or make you feel sick. Once used always preferred. They strengthen. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

The Right Name is DeWitt.

DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cools, soothes and heals cuts, burns, boils, bruises, piles and all skin diseases. K. E. Zichefoose, Adolph, W. Va., says: "My little daughter had white swelling so bad that piece after piece of bone worked out of her leg. DeWitt's Witch Hazel Salve cured her." It is the most wonderful healing salve in the world. Beware of counterfeits. Sold by W. F. Creighton & Son, 924 Queen street.

Taking Desperate Chances.

It is true that many contract colds and recover from them without taking any precaution or treatment, and a knowledge of this fact leads others to take their chances instead of giving their colds the needed attention. It should be borne in mind that every cold weakens the lungs, lowers the vitality, makes the system less able to withstand each succeeding cold and paves the way for more serious diseases. Can you afford to take such desperate chances when Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, famous for its cure of colds, can be had for a trifle? For sale by Gibson & Timman and W. F. Creighton & Co.
